IN REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS

APPEAL AND MOTION

MAY 03 2011

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Josh Chatten-Brown, Esquire

APPLICATION: Reinstatement of appeal; asylum; withholding of removal; protection under the Convention Against Torture

ORDER:

This matter was last before the Board on December 9, 2010, pursuant to an order of the United States Court of Appeals for the (b) (6) entered on (b) (6). Inasmuch as the respondent, who is a national of Haiti, appeared to be eligible for Temporary Protected Status, we issued an order administratively closing his proceedings so that he could apply for such status, and instructed that if either party objected, they could file a request for reinstatement of the proceedings along with proof of service of that request on the opposing party. On February 4, 2011, the respondent filed such a request, which is accompanied by the attendant certificate of service. Accordingly, the respondent's proceedings and appeal are reinstated.

We now address the (b) (6) order. The (b) (6) remanded this case to the Board to determine the respondent's eligibility for asylum, withholding of removal, and protection under the United Nations Convention Against Torture. The Court specifically held that we must accept the respondent's testimony as true. See (b) (6) v. Holder, (b) (6). (b) (6) When the respondent's testimony is accepted as true, the record supports a finding that he has demonstrated eligibility for asylum as a matter of law and discretion.¹ As such, the record will be remanded for the conduct of the requisite background and security checks.

FURTHER ORDER: Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 1003.1(d)(6), the record is remanded to the Immigration Judge for the purpose of allowing the Department of Homeland Security the opportunity to complete or update identity, law enforcement, or security investigations or examinations, and further proceedings, if necessary, and for the entry of an order as provided by 8 C.F.R. § 1003.47(h).

FOR THE BOARD

¹ In light of this determination, we need not determine whether the respondent has also demonstrated eligibility for asylum and CAT protection.

IN REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS

APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Josh Chatten-Brown, Esquire

APPLICATION: Asylum; withholding of removal; Convention Against Torture

This case is before the Board pursuant to an (b) (6) order of the United States Court of Appeals for the (b) (6). The Secretary of Homeland Security has designated Haiti under the Temporary Protected Status (TPS) Program. This designation is currently in effect and is scheduled to remain so through July 22, 2011. See 75 Fed. Reg. 3476-02 (January 21, 2010). It appears from the record that the alien in the case before us is from Haiti and may be eligible to register for TPS. Additional information about applying for TPS may be obtained from the Department of Homeland Security (1-800-375-5283 or www.uscis.gov).

Accordingly, the following order will be entered.

ORDER: Proceedings before the Board in this case are administratively closed.

If either party to this case objects to the administrative closure of these proceedings, a written request to reinstate the proceedings may be made to the Board. The Board will take no further action in the case unless a request is received from one of the parties. The request must be submitted directly to the Board of Immigration Appeals Clerk's Office, without fee, but with certification of service on the opposing party. If properly submitted, the Board shall reinstate the proceedings.
